University of Queensland Rugby Union Foundation Trust (Foundation)

is a charitable trust set up to provide money to The University of Queensland (UQ), to further the sport of Rugby Union football at UQ. The Foundation is registered as a charity with the Australian Charities and Not-for-Profits Commission (ACNC).

Eleven responsible, unpaid UQ alumni are the trustees of the Foundation (for their names and resumes, please go to www.uqrugby.com.au/foundation/mission/). They raise money from the public, manage and invest the trust monies prudentially (with professional advice) in accordance with the Trust Deed and governing legislation (including, in particular, the requirements of the ACNC and the Australian Taxation Office).

The Foundation's mission is to build up the trust fund, the earnings of which will further the sport of Rugby Union football at UQ by fostering the amateur game of Rugby Union football at UQ and enabling UQ, through its sporting club, University of Queensland Rugby Football Club Inc. (Club), to enhance its students' general health and welfare and community participation through playing the sport of Rugby Union football at UQ. The Club does not pay its players.
